

Close to You (Through the Years #1) by Nissa Renzo

Written by Idraoyhac

Introduction

Milow can't speak. Her father took her voice before she ever had a chance to use it, leaving her trapped in silence and haunted by memories no one should ever endure. Every day is a reminder of what... The narrative voice used throughout the book feels confident and well-defined. The author's tone remains steady, helping readers develop a sense of familiarity with the storytelling style. This consistency makes it easier to follow the plot and understand the underlying messages woven into the text. The result is a cohesive reading experience that feels deliberate and carefully crafted.
