

Dirty Savage Player (House of Cards, #2) by Lena Hunt

Written by Idraoyhac

Introduction

I don't believe in forever. I believe in odds and always having an out—until my stepsister shows up on my doorstep with an eviction notice and nowhere else to go. Opinionated and a self-confessed romantic, it makes sense that Pippa works for the biggest women's magazine in the country. What doesn't make sense is why the hell she'd accept an assignment for a "12 Dates of Christmas" feature to find her Mr. Right...while living in my apartment. It shouldn't be any of my business who she kisses for content, but these guys? Really? It's not long before our banter starts to feel more like foreplay, and one reckless taste of her proves exactly how combustible we are. But I'm not the sort of guy who can give her forever...so I'll be her dirty secret instead. Problem is I've never been good at sharing, and since she's ruined me for anyone else, the least I can do is return the favor. Dirty Savage Player is an enemies-to-lovers billionaire playboy romance featuring high heat, elite banter, and a holiday dating experiment gone horribly wrong. It is the second book in the House of Cards series, but can be read as a complete standalone.
