Everything happened so fast. So much was said, and so much blood was shed. As I stood here with blood on my hands, a knife in someone's head and everyone looking at each other, there's only one person I could think to call – my husband. Meer would figure out what to do, and he would come when I called. As I stared at what used to be my best friend, standing with blood on her hands, I realized she had shed the best friend title, and became my sister. Zoya and I stared at her, and it solidified that she would protect the Delgatos, Infernos, and Caselli's as her own. What happened in this house of horrors? Shit... all you need to know is that it was handled.
