I made a deal with my brother a long time ago to never date his teammates. Technically, Rowan Landry, the hot as hell center for the Chicago Falcons, is no longer my brother's teammate. Or his best friend. Their college days are long behind them, and they barely talk now. Also, I'm not dating him—we're just sleeping together. There's a difference. Except there's not a lot of sleeping going on, and neither one of us wants to stop what we're doing. It's all fun and games until my brother is traded to the Falcons, because Rowan doesn't know I'm the new goalie's little sister. Oops.
